Königssee with salt mines or the »Eagles Nest«

Already during the journey in the Berchtesgadener country you experience an impressive mountainous region, curtain on for an experience which you are not forgotten so fast. Further it goes to the crystal clear water of the Königssee. Here you go by the electric boat to the famous echo of the king's lake and the pilgrimage church Saint Bartholomä, to the landmark of the king's lake. Of course the world-famous echo of the king's lake not absent. A trumpet player demonstrates the echo from the boat to you.

An other place of interest is the mine in Berchtesgaden. With the pit road one reaches 700 m deep in the mountain and can explore there with a guide the mine. Furthermore is worth seeing the throaty stone house and the documentation upper salt mine. From the Kehlsteinhaus(1.834 m) you enjoy an overpowering view at the Berchtesgadener contry and the Salzburg bay. The Guide will adapt the route according to your wishes.
