Vienna - The Capital of Austria

Come with us, one of the major capitals of Europe to learn. We begin our trip in Schoenbrunn Palace, which in the past, the summer residence of Emperor Franz-Josef and his wife Sissi. Today we find in the castle is not only an excellent museum, the us an insight into the life of the imperial family, but also a huge animal park primarily for children has much to offer. There is not only the animal park, but also in the Spanish Riding School much to see, there beautifuls horses in the world.

Because the interests of the guests are very versatile, they can be individually selected what you do afternoon. For art, Vienna offers more than 100 museums and galleries, especially the "Art History and the Natural History Museum is highly recommended. You can trace the most accurate of the Hapsburg monarchy and Belvedere Castle visit or in the Kapuzinergruft increase, the tomb of the Habsburg family. Culturally interesting is the Stephansdom, which is a landmark of Vienna, and the most important Gothic structure is.

For shopping people, we offer a shopping trip to an outlets shopping center. Another highlight, especially for children and adolescents is the Prater. That is a huge amusement park with more than 250 attractions: from the Ferris wheel on the nostalgic ghost train, Ringel games, tracks, amusement arcades and stalls. There's a lot of restaurants, cafes, fast-food stands and beer gardens.
